Good to know: I register and host your domain name and site for you under the care plan. If you ever want to take over your domain and site files, a one-time $300 buyout transfers them to you, along with help moving the site to your own hosting. The text and photos you provide always remain yours. Unused edits do not roll over. A website supports your business but I can't guarantee search rankings, calls, or sales. Details are confirmed in a short written agreement before work begins.
